Doulton's Artistic Tradition Continues

Our travels in January took us to the Atlanta Gift Show where we previewed the new Royal Doulton collection for 2008. The Figure of the Year, Olivia, wears a striking off-the-shoulder gown with a sash decorated with tiny scatters of flowers beautifully tied around her waist. Designer John Bromley has been inspired by contemporary fashions for belts and sashes to create a sophisticated figurine. Michael Doulton's event figure, Anabel, is very special to him this year. As usual, Michael is very involved in the selection and naming of his annual figures and this year he suggested the name Anabel – inspired by his beautiful daughter. This year's new figurine releases once again prove why Royal Doulton leads from the top when it comes to fine collectables.

Disney fans will be delighted with Royal Doulton's new Disney Movie Showcase collection. Featuring favorites such as The Jungle Book and Alice in Wonderland, the collection features new characters never before produced. The series brings together the leading characters from each film in a selection of open and limited editions to give collectors plenty of choices!

We invite you to shop our spring catalog and discover your favorite Royal Doulton pieces including Figures, Character Jugs, Bunnykins, Beatrix Potter and Royal Albert Giftware. Remember to visit our website, where you'll find our complete selection of new and discontinued items.
